

Section Title: Board and Corporate Administration - Board Administration
Subject: Fair Practices Advocate
Effective Date: January 1, 2006

POLICY PURPOSE

This policy defines the role and mandate of the Fair Practices Advocate as required by The Workers Compensation Act.

A. ROLE AND MANDATE

1. The Fair Practices Advocate functions as an organizational ombudsman for employers and claimants who feel they have been aggrieved by an act, omission or unfair practice of the WCB.
2. The Fair Practices Advocate has a moral duty of impartiality and, therefore, cannot act as any individual's advocate or representative, but only as an advocate for fair practices.
3. The Fair Practices Advocate will be free from interference in the performance of his or her duties.
4. In conducting an investigation, the Fair Practices Advocate shall have, within the normal hours of work of the WCB and given reasonable notice:
 - a) unfettered access to all files, documents and other materials in the possession of the WCB relating to the issue under investigation,
 - b) unfettered access to the employees of the WCB, when appropriate.
5. The Fair Practices Advocate may decline to investigate a complaint. He or she may exercise this discretion in situations such as, but is not limited to, those in which the complainant has had knowledge for more than one year and which the complainant has not been actively pursuing.
6. The Fair Practices Advocate will make recommendations when, in his or her judgement, a decision of the WCB was clearly wrong or clearly unreasonable.
7. The Fair Practices Advocate may, on his or her own initiative, investigate, identify and make recommendations on systemic issues within the WCB.
8. The Fair Practices Advocate does not have the right to make or change decisions of the WCB or the authority to determine rights under The Workers Compensation Act.
9. If on completion of an investigation, the Fair Practices Advocate determines that an unfair practice has occurred he or she may seek to resolve the issue at the most appropriate level of the WCB administration. If an appropriate remedy is not implemented, he or she will raise the matter to senior levels of the WCB, including the Chief Executive Officer. Unresolved issues will be reported to the Board of Directors.

B. RELATIONSHIP OF FAIR PRACTICES ADVOCATE TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND THE WCB

1. The Fair Practices Advocate is appointed by and reports to the Board of Directors. For administrative purposes the Fair Practices Advocate reports to the Chairperson of the Board.
2. The Fair Practices Advocate and his or her staff operate at arm's length from the management of the Workers Compensation Board.
3. The Fair Practices Advocate and his or her staff are employees of the Workers Compensation Board and the conditions of employment are consistent with the WCB's usual human resource practices.
4. The Fair Practices Advocate may be removed from office for just cause or through the mutual consent of the Fair Practices Advocate and the Board of Directors.
5. The Fair Practices Advocate will manage the operating budget of the Fair Practices Office and will hire and manage the staff of the Office.
6. The Fair Practices Advocate will provide a quarterly summary of enquiries, investigations and resolutions to the Executive Management Committee of the WCB.
7. The Fair Practices Advocate will report to the Board of Directors quarterly throughout the year and will issue an annual report.
