

A Guide to Service Providers

Occupational Safety & Health, Disability Management, Return to Work

Disability Management, Return to Work and Occupational Safety and Health Resource Guide

The development of sound safety and health programs in the workplace leads to fewer injuries, fewer claims to the Workers Compensation Board and lower costs for everyone.

This resource guide has been prepared by the Workers Compensation Board of Manitoba and Manitoba Workplace Safety and Health to encourage employers and workers to improve safety in their workplaces. It does this by providing a guide to various organizations that offer workplace safety and health resources and/or services. The listing provides assistance on where to go for help when dealing with various workplace safety issues such as training, hazardous chemicals, WHMIS, etc.

Any workplace, regardless of size, can manage injuries in the workplace more effectively using some basic principles. In its simplest term, “return to work” is developing a way to meet the needs of ill or injured workers in order to bring them back to health and work. The result? The development of a sound return to work program can lead to a reduction in lost work time, maintaining productivity, a reduction in the time between the onset and the worker’s safe return to work and a reduction in the cost of disability – including WCB assessments.

The listing is divided into two sections as follows:

Section 1

Lists various safety and health and disability and return to work problems together with those organizations (government, non-profit and private-sector companies and consultants) which may be able to offer some assistance with a particular issue. In most cases the organizations are based in Winnipeg but are willing to provide services outside Winnipeg. Some have offices outside Winnipeg as well, and others are based in other communities.

A number of organizations referenced in Section 1 charge on a “fee for service” basis. Generally, organizations that charge fees for service do not do so for information in advance, providing that long consultations or on-site visits are not involved.

Section 2

Provides information that will assist you to make contact with the various organization listed in the first two sections.

The information provided, while as comprehensive as possible, is not necessarily a complete list of all the various organizations providing some health and safety assistance. To be included on this list, please contact the SAFE Work Services Department of the Workers Compensation Board at 1-204-954-4501.

Note: Persons and companies are included in this listing on a voluntary basis. The Workers Compensation Board of Manitoba and Workplace Safety and Health do not approve, endorse or accept responsibility for the use of any products or services offered for sale by the listed suppliers. The listing is intended for information use only.*
