REPORTING WORKPLACE INJURY CLAIMS

If you're hurt at work, we're here to help.

As an employer, you have a responsibility to report all workplace injuries to the WCB within five business days of the day of the injury or the day you become aware of the injury.

There are several options for reporting an injury claim:

- Electronically

The Online Incident Reporting System is a secure Internet application providing you with immediate access to WCB Incident Report forms, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The Online Incident Reporting System can be accessed at <http://www.wcb.mb.ca/incident-reporting>

- Telephone

Injury claims can be reported to the WCB's Claims Service Centre at 204-954-4321 or toll free 1-855-954-4321.

- Print

An Employer's Incident Form can be obtained online or by calling 204-954-4321. Once this form is complete, it can be faxed to (204-954-4999, or toll free 1-877-872-3804) or mailed to:

The Workers Compensation Board of Manitoba,
333 Broadway, Winnipeg MB R3C 4W3

Employers benefit when they report workplace injuries early.

The sooner the WCB knows about an injury, the quicker the claim can be adjudicated and processed – which ultimately helps get employees back to work sooner. A return to work program can greatly minimize the number of days an employee is away from work as the result of a workplace injury. Having employees healthy and working helps to reduce costs for lost labour.

Reporting workplace injuries early also helps employers avoid administrative penalties for late reporting. Currently, the WCB issues hundreds of administrative penalties each year.
